Assignment 6: First Writing Assignment

Narrative Structures and their Effects on the Reading Process

Take one or several of the literary texts we have read in class and analyze its/their narrative structure by focusing on aspects of the narrator(s), narrative perspective, and narrative construction. In addition, take examples from the texts and comment in detail the effects on the reader (you) by using concepts described in the theoretical texts by Iser, Poulet, and Barthes.

Write a text of at least 5 pages (1.5 line spacing, 12 font size).
