

Journal Assignment #2
Assigned Session 8
Due Session 11, 2003

1. What pressures are/were there for the stakeholders in the public dispute you selected to resolve their differences? What countervailing pressures were there to pursue the dispute? Produce the basic outlines of a Conflict Assessment for your case?
2. What integrative outcomes (or more integrative outcomes) could you imagine for this public dispute?
3. What did you learn from the Redstone negotiation? If you were to play the same game again with a stranger, what would you do differently?
4. What argument was finally successful in determining/justifying the distribution of points in the three-party coalition game? why was it persuasive? What did you learn from this?
5. Provide a short reaction to/ comments on the readings thus far